

Key professional experience

Shane has more than 30 years of experience in building surveying extending from residential, commercial and healthcare buildings to industrial developments.

Since joining Philip Chun in 1992, Shane has been involved in several landmark projects, including the Melbourne Cricket Ground, Etihad Stadium, Eureka Tower, Melbourne office towers at 150 and 567 Collins Street, and several multi-storey residential towers and precincts. Shane frequently prepares expert opinion reports relating to building code law, and has given evidence in High Court, Supreme Court, County Court and VCAT hearings. He served on the Buildings Appeal Board for more than 11 years, with eight of those being in the position of Deputy Chair.
